Short Term Disability Claim Statement

For your protection, the following disclosures are required by state law and are based on the state where you live:

If you live in the states of Alaska or Oregon, the following statement applies to you:

A person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive an insurance company, files a claim containing false, incomplete, or misleading information may be prosecuted under state law.

If you live in the states of Arizona or New Jersey, the following statement applies to you:

A person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss is subject to criminal and civil penalties.

If you live in the states of Arkansas, Louisiana, Maryland, or Rhode Island the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for payment of a loss or benefit or knowingly presents false information in an application for insurance is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in prison.

If you live in the state of California, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

If you live in Colorado, the following statement applies to you:

It is unlawful to knowingly provide false, incomplete, or misleading facts or information to an insurance company for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the company. Penalties may include imprisonment, fines, denial of insurance, and civil damages. Any insurance company or agent of an insurance company who knowingly provides false, incomplete or misleading facts or information to a policy holder or claimant for the purpose of defrauding or attempting to defraud the policy holder or claimant with regard to a settlement or award payable from insurance proceeds shall be reported to the Colorado Division of Insurance within the Department of Regulatory Agencies.

If you live in Delaware, Florida, Idaho, Indiana or Oklahoma, the following statement applies to you: WARNING: Any person who knowingly and with intent to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurer files a statement of claim or application containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is guilty of a felony. In Florida, it is a felony of the third degree.

If you live in the District of Columbia, Tennessee or Virginia the following statement applies to you:

WARNING: It is a crime to provide false or misleading information to an insurer for the purpose of defrauding the insurer or any other person. Penalties include imprisonment and/or fines. In addition, an insurer may deny insurance benefits if false information materially related to a claim was provided by the applicant.

If you live in New Hampshire, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who, with a purpose to injure, defraud, or deceive any insurance company, files a statement of claim containing any false, incomplete, or misleading information is subject to prosecution and punishment for insurance fraud, as provided in RSA 638:20.

Products and services marketed by Assurant Employee Benefits are underwritten and/or provided by Union Security Insurance Company. In this document, the terms "we," "us," "our," and the like, refer to each as applicable.

Following is the information for claim submission:

If you live in New York the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information, or conceals for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto, commits a fraudulent act, which is a crime and shall also be subject to a civil penalty not to exceed five thousand dollars and the stated value of the claim for each such violation.

If you live in Minnesota, the following statement applies to you:

A person who files a claim with intent to defraud or helps commit a fraud against an insurer is guilty of a crime.

If you live in Texas, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly presents a false or fraudulent claim for the payment of a loss is guilty of a crime and may be subject to fines and confinement in state prison.

If you live in a state other than mentioned above, the following statement applies to you:

Any person who knowingly and with intent to defraud any insurance company or other person files an application for insurance or statement of claim containing any materially false information or conceals, for the purpose of misleading, information concerning any fact material thereto commits a fraudulent insurance act, which is a crime and subjects such person to criminal and civil penalties.

To avoid unnecessary delays, be sure all parts of the Claim Statement are completed according to the instructions, and DO NOT SEPARATE the pages.

After completion of the authorization on this page, and Parts 1 and 2, forward to Attending Physician for completion of Part 3.

To be completed by Claimant:

I authorize any provider of medical services, insurance company, consumer reporting agency, Social Security Administration, governmental agency, educational institute, law enforcement agency, or employer having medical information with respect to any physical or mental condition, rehabilitation and other non-medical information of me to give to Union Security Insurance Company, or its representative, any and all such information. I understand Union Security Insurance Company may discuss my limitations/restrictions with treating physicians and current or prospective employers as they relate to accommodations and possible return to work. I UNDERSTAND the information obtained by use of this Authorization will be used by Union Security Insurance Company to determine the eligibility for benefits. I know that a photographic copy of this authorization shall be as valid as the original. I agree this Authorization shall be valid for the duration of the claim. This authorization is not governed by HIPAA, however, when necessary, I may be asked to execute a HIPAA authorization form, allowing Union Security Insurance Company to use and disclose protected health information.
